2022-2023 Corporate Sponsorship

When businesses show their support for Lyric Opera of the North, they gain the loyal patronage of our audience and show the community they are dedicated supporters of the arts. Sponsors play an important role in bringing our season to life. Your company can choose to sponsor a single performance or make the ultimate statement to your community by sponsoring an entire season.

As a corporate sponsor of Lyric Opera of the North, benefits and promotional opportunities await you, your clients, and your employees. There are also numerous ways that your company can tailor your giving aside from mainstage sponsorships. As a sponsor, you show your company cares about the cultural life of our region.

For information on corporate giving, please contact Sarah Lawrence at 218.464.0922 or info@loonopera.org.
